

LOCAL BREVITIES.

See Lopez's new "ad."
The fine fall weather still continues.
The education on the tariff did the work.

Thanksgiving but a week away and no turkey yet in sight.
Sharpley's Theatre Company is in Poplar Bluff this week.

The federal building in Arcadia will be "to let" in the near future.
Didn't that torch light procession last Saturday night worry our Republican friends?

Miss Lydia J. Welch, west of the Blue Store, is prepared to do all kinds of plain sewing.

Parties of hunters from St. Louis nowadays are numerous and they all hie to Black river.

Rev. J. L. Belding held services at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening.

The remains of Judge E. J. Langdon were taken to Dunklin county for interment on Wednesday last.

The Australian ballot has proven perfectly satisfactory. It guarantees a free vote and an honest count.

Presiding Elder Hanesworth held quarterly meeting services at Fort Hill church last Saturday and Sunday.

Gentle reader, how do you suppose a Democrat, who was deluded into voting for Warner, would feel about now?

Clark Bros. Circus starts out this week for a month's campaign in the swamps. Thence they return here for the winter.

Again we ask what has become of the coffin which the Pilot Knob Republicans were preparing for their ratification parade?

The salt river frigate had plenty of vinegar on board, judging from the awfully sour visages of some of the passengers.

BORN.—To Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whitworth, Sunday morning, November 13th, 1892, a girl. All parties are doing nicely.

Do not forget the Columbian church festival at New Hall House, Pilot Knob Wednesday evening, November 23d. A grand time is assured.

Did you ever see so many long faces as those worn by Republicans the past week? Phen! ain't some of the would-be victors sulky and grim?

On the inside pages of this week's REGISTER will be found the opening chapter of "Roy, the Royalist." It promises to be an interesting story.

The Democrats painted the town a rich cardinal hue last Saturday night; most of the Republicans crawled in a hole and plugged the hole after them.

The "young hopefuls" of Arcadia had a Democratic torch-light procession and parade last Monday night. We understand they made quite a creditable display.

There will be a called meeting of Midian R. A. Chapter, No. 71, next Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Work in all the degrees. Visiting brethren invited.

Our friend, Jno. Schwab, is an ardent Republican, but he can take defeat like a philosopher. And he can boast having a mill that makes as fine flour as can be secured in the land.

We wonder how many Republicans will take the pains to forward a copy of each week's REGISTER to Washington as they did shortly after the election of four years ago. $2 a day and roast beef?

It is said that the applicants for the post-office under the Democratic administration will be numerous. At all events there can't be a worse scramble than there was when Mr. Harrison was elected in 1888.

A good lady from the West end of Iron county knocked at our door Monday and informed us that all the Republican roosters in that end of the county were Stone dead. It is a Warner for the future.

Returns from Reynolds county show election of the entire Democratic ticket by large majorities. The Republicans over there made desperate efforts this year to elect a couple of county officers, but it availed nothing.

Mr. Sanford Andrews has sold his residence in Arcadia to Mr. Jas. F. Hutton. The purchaser has already taken possession and Mr. Andrews now lives in the house on College Street, just south of Mr. Tual's.

The city collector desires us to inform all parties that city taxes are now due and must be promptly paid. He has orders to collect from everybody, and he intends to obey his instructions. Pay at once and save trouble.

Mrs. T. H. Hagerty of St. Louis will address the ladies of the Reynolds St. M. E. Church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and also at the missionary concert which will be given at the same church at night. Everybody invited.

Messrs. Hughes and Counts of Sabula who were recently arrested by the United States authorities on the charge of selling liquor without license, recently pleaded guilty in the District court at St. Louis, and are now serving sentences in the jail there.

Jesse Stone, formerly of this place, but now a brakeman on the road, is one of the most jubilant Democrats in the country. He passed through here last Wednesday with a suit made of stars and stripes, topped by a Cleveland hat, and how he could hurrah!

The trustees for the Free Will Baptist church, colored, have purchased a lot in the north end of town where they propose building a church in the near future. They ask that all parties who promised to help them to come forward with the money as they need it now.

Poor old Pilot Knob! Gave a Republican majority on Tuesday and next day came an order from the Superintendent's office at De Soto stating that after December 1st the telegraph office at Pilot Knob would be discontinued.

When the Republicans assumed charge of the federal government four years ago they made changes in the post-offices at Ironton, Arcadia, Annapolis and Des Arc as soon as they could agree on Republicans to fill them. The changes should be just as quick after March 4th next.

In publishing the official vote last week there was a mistake in the total vote credited to Mr. E. C. Tual, Republican candidate for Assessor. Mr. Tual's vote was printed at 624 when it should have been 554. Mr. Reburn's majority being 342 votes. It was simply a typographical error.

For the reason that there were not five thousand people in line here Saturday night some of the Republicans sarcastically interrogated, "Where is the crowd?" We should have thought that there were enough Republicans in line on election day to have satisfied the Republicans for years to come.

The REGISTER knows of two or three Republicans hereabouts, who will certainly die of broken hearts, if the country does not suffer from depression, calamity, famine, and even war, under the Cleveland regime. And yet they doubtless would grow very indignant if any one were to question their patriotism. Humanity is hard, very hard to understand, at times.

It's all right for the Republicans to ratify when they secure a victory, but it's all wrong when the Democrats do it, was the spirit evidenced by some of the local Republican leaders last Saturday night. And the marked difference between our parade and the one they had four years ago was that we did nothing to hurt anybody's feelings; we didn't carry coffins and pictures of the defeated candidate with a black eye as they did.

As the Democratic procession passed through Pilot Knob last Saturday evening some over zealous Republican displayed a transparency on one of the vacant lots with this inscription, "No protection now; rebuilt in 1896." Pilot Knob, with her vacant houses, dismantled mines and neglected furnaces, it would seem had already had enough of "protection." Let any fair-minded man make a trip over there, view the surroundings and render his honest opinion.

The tactics of some of the local Republicans since the election have been highly amusing, and if they only had perception enough to realize it, they are making themselves the laughing stock of the community. These self-same oracles are predicting war, famine and pestilence, and all on account of Democratic success. Now isn't this silly twaddle for intelligent men? Aren't the Democrats that you know fully as patriotic as the Republicans? Of course they are.

Smith Railway has established a night passenger train service between Cape Girardeau and Williamsville, making close connection with Iron Mountain trains Nos. 53 and 54 at Williamsville. E. F. BLOMEYER, Gen'l Pas. Agt.

"Richard and his sweetheart Nell," song and chorus, quartet, sent free to any address by Studebaker Bros. Mfg. Co., South Bend, Ind., on receipt of stamp to cover postage and mailing. The verses relate the story of a drive taken by Richard and Nell. The title designed by the artist, Gray-Parker, showing Richard and his sweetheart about starting out on their memorable drive. The words, of course, constitute a love story. The share in it of the Studebakers is merely incidental. The melody is delightful, and was composed for the words by the well known musical writer, W. F. Sudds.

The election of Cleveland and Stevenson and the general triumph of Democracy in the late election, was celebrated in a fitting manner by the Democracy of Iron county last Saturday night. A torch light procession, numbering between three and four hundred people, headed by the Grantville brass band, was formed in front of the court house about 7:30 o'clock, and from there marched up Main street to Pilot Knob and back. There were about fifty horsemen in the procession, a number of transparencies, displaying the discomfiture of the Republicans, were distributed along the line. Tin horns were numerous and stout-tongued Democrats made the welkin ring. A number of the business houses and private residences were elegantly illuminated and it was a gala night in every particular. The streets were lined with sight-seers, and it was a model demonstration in every respect. Everybody was on good behavior and everybody seemed to take special pains to see that all went gaily on. As the order to march was given, the canons boomed, the populace cheered, and the band played. Grand and beautiful displays of fireworks illuminated the line of march, and the tin horns echoed the "Dead March in Saul" for the enemy. At Pilot Knob, mine host Steffen, had his entire place radiant with lights, and sky rockets and Roman candles illuminated the skies. Several railroad trains were passed on the way, and in each and every instance the engineers greeted the joyous marchers with loud and prolonged shrieks of their locomotives. On the return to the courthouse there was more booming of cannons, fireworks, without stint, and then speeches by Hon. W. E. Edgar, J. B. Walker and J. S. Jordan. After this, the crowds dispersed for home and rest. Considering that the affair was gotten up on short notice, and without any prolonged or special preparation, it was an unparalleled success. All honor to the faithful Democracy of Iron!

A Reconciled Republican.

Ed. Register.—Did you ever go a "snipe-hunting," and afterwards contemplate the pleasures of memory, which must have regaled the victim as he came to his senses? If so, you may have a faint conception of the feeling of the phalanx of Republicans who, in the doubtful, the border and Southern states, have so long combatted against fate, and at length found themselves deserted without having bagged a single snipe of a rooster. The wait might be long and continuous were it not from the truly magnanimous spirit displayed by the victor to the fallen foe and a gracious permission given him to live and enjoy the blessings of liberty under the new dispensation after the bloodless revolution; for never did a free people arise so in their majesty and rebuke legitimately the follies of misrule with more unmistakable signs than in the results of the national and gubernatorial contest of November 4th. Subsequently, until March 4th, 1893, there will be more rejoicings and grander obsequies held over the grand old party than any other, for she certainly deserves it by her brilliant record, and there is nothing more inspiring to the patriotic heart than to see the rejoicings of a liberated people who have succeeded in turning out those from office who have begun to tarnish the fair fame of her achievements, and delivered over the reins of government to his hands, having rested for a while from the cares of state, Cincinnati like, will again right their real or imagined wrongs ere he delivers back his charge to the people from whence it came. Let us all forget party strife and prejudice in this hour of profound rejoicing, and Republicans, as well as Democrats, bid His Excellency, Grover Cleveland, a hearty welcome and God speed. White House. All hail to the Chief, and the new era of good feeling!

A REPUBLICAN.

Arcadia, Mo., Nov. 14th, 1892.

Annapolis News.

Ed. Register.—Wm. Powers, editor of the Centerville Reformer, was in town Tuesday evening reading the election news as the bulletins came in and none seemed to enjoy the good news better.

J. J. Francis arrived home from Arkansas just in time to vote.

Some one started a story the other day which is worth repeating, whether it be true or not. Some fellow from the country is said to have asked if Esq. Hampton was a candidate for any office, and when informed that he was not said it was well for the Esquire could not get his vote as he was a Republican, and he would not vote for any d—n Republican.

August Lotz and wife have separated again and August has signified his intention of leaving Annapolis. We are sorry for this as August is a good citizen and all good people sympathize with him. Fritz Warnky, who is said to be the principal cause of the trouble, hauled her and her family out in the country to her father's.

In view of the fact, Mr. Editor, that Ohio has gone Democratic, that Mr. Cleveland has received, or will receive, in the neighborhood of 300 electoral votes out of a total of 444, I would like to ask your Pilot Knob correspondent if he is still of the opinion that the Homestead strikers are losing the sympathies of the people. We rejoice over the great victory of the people, not because of partisan advantage, not because the Republican party has been defeated, but because the people have triumphed. We rejoice because we are now assured that the war of the revolution was not fought in vain; that government by the people and for the people has come to stay in America; that the masses have triumphed over the classes, but, above all, we rejoice over the fact that all must now see that no party can now hope to live on sectional prejudice; that henceforth we are to be a united, happy and prosperous people. From Maine to Texas, from Florida to Alaska, from California to Massachusetts, the greatest good of the greatest number will be the anxious solicitude of the great National Democracy.

November 14, 1892. MURPHY.

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly, not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-enforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.

From Grantville.

Ed. Register.—Our national and state elections have been held, and the solid Democracy "from A to Izzard," has been vindicated. Republicanism, consisting of McKinleyism, Readism, Quayism, Bradleyism, Carterism, Forneyism, and all the other ignominious isms have been rebuked throughout the length and breadth of this American continent, as is shown from the result of last Tuesday's election. The Republican party has been clamoring for a square election, a secret ballot and an honest count; now that they have been awarded all this, what have they gained? Why they got the worst licking that is possible for any party posing as one of prominence to get. It is almost unprecedented in the annals of American politics. It is said that history repeats itself, and to our mind the history of 1890 is now verified, and to this we say, thanks, awfully! for the Australian system of voting. On sizing up some of our badly whipped Republicans as to the causes of the great earthquake, they seem dumbfounded and cannot, or will not, ascribe any reasons therefor. But to give them the school boy's reason, we will say first, that the Democratic party naturally has more voters than the (now defunct) g. o. p., but they have never before had the privilege of exercising their suffrage free, unmolested, and according to the dictates of their own conscience, and which is now conclusively shown. And second, too much unbroken pledges of McKinleyism, and third, White-law Reid's rat paper cut a pretty big figure among the voters of the laboring classes. All of which, we venture to say, Mr. Reid has now fully become convinced. As to the election in this precinct, never, to our knowledge, was there a more quiet or peaceable election held; everything around our polling place had the aspect of a funeral. It was a sort of general looking to the Republican party, next morning, when the news began to reverberate through the air that Grover Cleveland was elected to the chief magistracy of these United States. Speaking of Warner-Democrats, nary a W.-D. was there in this town, but to the contrary, we had one O'Meara Republican. We noticed from the vote cast at poor old Pilot Knob, about 2 o'clock A. M. on the 9th, that Mr. "X's" Warner-Democrats didn't materialize, or they must have been like the one shown in the St. Louis Republic, on last Thursday's issue: "got lost in the woods." By careful investigation, we have found twenty-one actual Democratic and six Republican voters that did not vote at last Tuesday's election, and out of a total vote of 152, there were only four or five that did not comply with the requirements of preparing their ballots.

Oh, my! what an exodus of officeholders will there be, when Mr. Cleveland takes his seat the fourth of March in the City of Washington, and also among these little one-horse post-masters throughout the country, who are not built the right way, and who have been dabbling in politics, contrary to the rules of the post-office department. We remember correctly, it was President Hayes who kicked Chauncey L. Filley out of the St. Louis post-office for this same cause, and when big fish like "de ole man" gets pulled, little fry had better take heed. It is hoped that Mr. Cleveland will adhere as strictly to the civil service rules as did Mr. Harrison and his subordinates. And if so, he will only be following out the principles and doings of his predecessors, and we trust that none get away.

Abraham Lincoln

When leaving his home at Springfield, Ill., to be inaugurated President of the United States, made a farewell address to his old friends and neighbors, in which he said, "NEIGHBORS, GIVE YOUR BOYS A CHANCE."

These words come with as much force to-day as they did thirty year ago.

How give them this chance?

Up in the Northwest is a great empire waiting for young and sturdy fellows to come and develop it and "grow up with the country." All over this broad land are the fellows, the boys that Lincoln referred to, seeking to better their condition and get on in life.

Here is their chance!

The country referred to lies along the Northern Pacific R. R. Here you can find pretty much anything you want. In Minnesota, and in the Red River Valley of North Dakota, the finest of prairie lands for wheat and grain, or as well for diversified farming.

In Western North Dakota, and Montana, are stock ranges limitless in extent, clothed with the most nutritious of grasses.

If a fruit farming region is wanted there is the whole State of Washington to select from.

As for scenic delights the Northern Pacific Railroad passes through a country unparalleled. In crossing the Rocky, Bitter Root, and Cascade Mountains, the greatest mountain scenery to be seen the United States from car windows is found. The wonderful bad lands, wonderful in graceful form, and glowing color, are a poem. Lakes Pend d'Oreille and Coeur d'Alene, are alone worthy of a transcontinental trip, while they are the fisherman's Ultima Thule. The ride along Clark's Fork of the Columbia River is a daylight dream. To cap the climax this is the only way to reach the far-famed Yellowstone Park.

To reach and see all this the Northern Pacific Railroad furnishes trains and service of unsurpassed excellence. The most approved and comfortable Palace Sleeping cars; the best Dining cars that can be made; Pullman Tourist cars good for both first and second class passengers; easy riding Day coaches, with Baggage, Express, and Postal cars all drawn by powerful Baldwin Locomotives, make a train fit for royalty itself.

Those seeking for new homes should take this train and go and spy out the land. To be prepared, write to:

CHAS. S. FEE, G. P. & T. A., St. Paul, Minn.

These figures represent the number of bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which were sold in the United States from March '91 to March '92. Two Million, Two Hundred and Twenty-Eight Thousand, Six Hundred and Seventy-Two bottles sold in one year, and each and every bottle was sold on a positive guarantee that money would be refunded if satisfactory results did not follow its use. The secret of its success is plain. It never disappoints and can always be depended on for the very best remedy for Coughs, Colds, and Whooping Cough.
